

LOCALS

Jury term begins next Wednesday.

The democrats of Wailuku have called a mass meeting at Wailuku Court house, on Tuesday evening. See notice.

Kahului is still crowded with incoming vessels, several of which are lying in the offing, waiting their turn to unload.

Kinder & Beach are kept very busy making connections between the water mains and private residences. Every body wants pure water.

The News boys have handled a large amount of job work this week, which will account for any little oversights which may appear in this issue.

The Maui delegates to the Hawaiian Republican Convention at Honolulu returned this morning. They report the weather very hot in Honolulu.

John Kinney, in charge of the prison labor on the public roads and streets, is doing some excellent and much needed work in the way of improving the Wailuku streets.

Hon. A. N. Kepoikai has been selected a delegate to the National Republican Convention. Another good man gone to Philadelphia. (Independent will please not copy this local.)

D. B. Macomachie, travelling salesman for Theo. H. Davis & Co., reached Wailuku this morning from Hawaii, and will remain on Maui for a week. He reports intensely hot weather in the rainy city.

See Hoffmann & Vetlesen's new ad, this week. In addition to the lines of goods mentioned in the ad., they carry the most complete stock of gents', ladies' and children's shoes in Wailuku. Call and see.

Notwithstanding the plentiful rains on the pasture lands of Maui, the beef which is sold in the markets in Wailuku is simply atrocious. It is to be hoped that the range beeves will soon get fat enough to make a shadow at least.

Rev. W. Ault of Lahaina, who has just returned from a visit to Hawaii, came over to Wailuku yesterday. He will conduct divine service at the Anglican Church, Main St., Wailuku tomorrow morning at eleven o'clock, A. M.

We regret to announce that John Tu, one of the typos on the News, has severed his connection with the paper. John was a very faithful and reliable young man, a pattern, in fact for young Hawaiians, and will do well wherever he goes.

Sheriff Baldwin and Judge J. W. Kalua have been examining the two valleys roads with the view, if practicable, of extending a branch road from Market street on the Wailuku side, up to connect with the present road running up the valley. The two roads will meet just above the first crossing.

Certain portions of the fourth page, this week, will have a somewhat familiar look to the constant readers of the News. "What can you do?" The Dora Blum has for weeks been lying in Kahului bay, waiting to unload, and on board of her is the long expected fourth page matter. This continual delay is making us gray headed.

On last Saturday night, Judge and Mrs. W. A. McKay entertained quite a number of guests at a euchre party. The beautiful grounds and the lanai were lit up with Chinese lanterns, producing a real fairy land appearance. After the games were concluded and the prizes distributed, the guests were treated to an elegant supper.

Work on the reservoir is being pushed rapidly, and Mr. Field, who is in charge of the work, is making the dirt fly. He says that the hole is now big enough to bury the whole of Wailuku, but as a matter of fact there are but few Wailukans who should be buried just yet. Most of them are quite alive and are keeping right up with the progressive times which have come to us.

Thos. M. Tighe, of McFarlane & Co., Honolulu, is in Wailuku this week, ostensibly to superintend the opening ceremonies of the new Wailuku saloon, opposite the Wailuku depot today but his real object in coming over was to enjoy the balmy air of Wailuku and the generous hospitality of Shrader's New Hotel for a few days.

Mr. John T. Aluli will soon remove the shacks on Market street, opposite the new building being erected by Judge Kepoikai, and adjoining the dental parlors of Dr. Boote. A two story coffee saloon will be erected on the site, which will be occupied by Ah Kip, one of the partners in the unfortunate Sam Sing restaurant in Kahului, where the plague first appeared.

Owing to the fact that several of the island steamers will leave Maui for Honolulu on Friday next, in order to give the Maui people a chance to attend the races in Honolulu, the Grand Concert of the Wailuku public school will be held on Thursday evening, June 7th, instead of on Friday, the 8th, as was first intended. Tickets printed and sold for the 8th will be good for the 7th. Don't forget the change of date, and tell your neighbors about it, for no one should miss attending the entertainment.

The foundations are laid and the framework is erected for a business block owned and erected by Hon. A. N. Kepoikai, on his lot at the corner of Main and Market street. The building will have a frontage of 80 ft. on Market street and 32 ft. on Main street. The corner will be occupied by Lovejoy & Co. as a wholesale liquor house. Mori, a former prominent Japanese merchant of Kahului, will occupy the opposite end of the building as a store. The Maui Labor Bureau will also have offices in the building. Mr. Kuwa, a Hawaiian has the contract for the construction of the building.

Wailuku School Concert.

A grand concert will be given by the Wailuku Public School on Thursday June 7th, commencing at 7:30 P. M. This promises to be one of the best entertainments that Wailuku has had for many years.

Miss Nape, the special music teacher, has spared no pains to have the several classes, thoroughly drilled on choice selections, including solos, concert singing, and tableaux, to say nothing of Ten Little Sunflowers and the Broom Brigade. Don't miss seeing this entertainment, for it will be a jolly treat both to the old folks and the children.

The proceeds of the entertainment will be go to pay for a piano for the school.

Huelo Notes.

The concert given for the benefit of the church at Huelo, on the evening of May 26th, was a success as regards numbers, merit and receipts. The Sunday schools of Keanae, Haiku, Keokea and Huelo were represented. The Keokea club responded to many encores, and the Hawaiians deserve much credit for the general excellence of the program. Bread, cake and coffee were served at the close.

The school-house and teacher's cottage were thrown open for the use of visitors, for whose comfort every provision had been made. During the night the rain flooded the church, giving proof positive of the imperative need for repairs.

The Hoike on Sunday was so good throughout that the judges were unable to give first place to any one school. The contribution from the Huelo Sunday school was $50.00. The proceeds from the concert were $112.00 and a like amount from the Hoike, the expenses not exceeding $4.00. A new roof and other repairs are to be added at once.

With the exception of five, the Government school at Huelo, of 50 pupils, are all Hawaiians. The school buildings are in good repairs, but old. The skill of the teacher in the use of cambric, pictures and lahala has made the school rooms quite attractive. The grounds surrounding the school are beautifully kept and look quite homelike.

It is to be regretted that Huelo school is to lose the services of so valuable a teacher, for our district schools need such men, who are able and willing to do work such as is being done at Huelo.

Free Trip to San Francisco For Hawaii Teachers.

The "EVENING BULLETIN" of Honolulu offers a delightful vacation trip to the Pacific Coast and return, to the school teacher who shall be declared by popular vote to be the most popular teacher of the Hawaiian Islands. The votes which appear in each issue of the "Bulletin" should be cut out and sent to the "Bulletin" office where they are counted each week, and the result announced.

The names of the teachers do not appear in the paper, but a list of names corresponding with the counted numbers may be obtained on application to the office.

The old standby, the Australia, which can always be depended on, on plague or no plague, territorial law or no territorial law, is the ship that will carry the fortunate teacher who secures the prize on her well deserved outing trip. Everyone knows the Australia and though she does roll just a little bit, the food you get is so good it simply has to stay down. The genial captain and purser will undoubtedly do all in their power to make the trip a delightful time long to be remembered by the teacher who is declared the most popular of the Islands. The return ticket will be good for four months and the visit at the Coast will be limited in time only by the desires of the teacher.

If you want to give one of your teacher friends one of the most pleasant summers they have every enjoyed just cut out the votes which appear in the upper right hand corner of this page in each issue and deposit them in the ballot box at the Bulletin office. If you are not satisfied with this slow way of bringing her to the front why then subscribe for the Bulletin and get your friends to subscribe. You will get all the news and the most correct news and get it all the time, and in addition you will be given votes to cast for your favorite teacher as follows, according to the term of your subscription:

1 MONTH, 40 votes
3 MONTHS, 150 "
6 MONTHS, 350 "
1 YEAR, 750 "

Subscriptions are 75 cents a month or $8 a year in advance.
